Water Bond Issue Approved

Continuation: Clean Little City

This picture, and others in this issue, show scenes around the square where grass and weeds, and even a tree, are growing in the sidewalks.

Big Margins Pass Both Proposals

Both propositions of the $650,000 water bond election held Tuesday were okayed overwhelmingly by the voters of Canyon in a turnout that topped 500.

The vote on the first proposition, which will provide cash to purchase water rights to the Mack Forrester land, was 406 "for" and 88 "against."

The vote on the second proposition, which will provide money to develop the waterfield, was 397 "for" and 91 "against." Total number of voters was 503.

The next step in obtaining water for Canyon will be taken by the city commission when the vote is canvassed and the bond company, Underwood and Company of Dallas, is notified.

Revival Planned For Calvary Baptist

The Rev. Aaron D. Mann, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, has announced that the church is making plans for a revival. The plans call for three weeks of organized effort to revive the spiritual interest of the members of the church and to reach and enlist those in the community who are not actively connected with any church in the community, the Rev. Mann said.

The program will begin with a series of prayer meetings Aug. 26-30. On Wednesday, the meeting will be in the church. The meetings on the other four nights will be in the homes of members.

The second week will include four nights of visitation revival. The workers of the church will meet at the church on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, receive assignments and go out in pairs to visit prospects.

Climaxing the program, Dr. E. L. Clark, pastor of Fairview Baptist Church in Amarillo, will preach twice daily from Sept. 8 to 15. Sunday services will be at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

On weekdays, the morning services will begin with breakfast served at the church at 6:30 a. m. and Dr. Clark will preach at 7 a. m. The evening services will begin at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

County Receives State Contracts

Contracts for state participation in the purchase of right of way were received Monday by the Randall County Commissioners Court.

The two contracts, which took effect Aug. 9, were for purchase of right of way from the top of Canyon hill to Bell Avenue on the Amarillo to Canyon expressway, and from Canyon to the Deaf Smith County line for the expressway to be constructed on Highway 60.

The contracts call for the state to participate up to 50 per cent of the purchase price of the right of way. In effect, the state will pay 50 per cent of the cost if the purchase price is not above the state's appraisal. If the price exceeds the appraisal, the state will pay only 50 per cent of the appraisal.

In a letter accompanying the contracts, the highway department explained that any improvements purchased under the contracts will be disposed of by the state board of control.

Submits Higdon For Postmaster

Marion Higdon, acting postmaster, was notified Tuesday by the National Association of Postmasters that his name has been submitted for postmaster here.

The letter said his name was submitted to the Senate Monday by the President for confirmation. Higdon has been acting postmaster since Guy Harp resigned this year, and was assistant potmaster before that time.

File $17,000 Suit In Death of Child

A $17,000 damage suit was filed in 47th District Court against Berl Edwards Mayfield Aug. 13 by Faye Daugherty, individually and as next friend and natural guardian for Franklin Nall, joined by Roy Daugherty, her husband, and Frank Nall, her former husband and father of Franklin and Shirley Nall.

The papers allege that at about 6 p. m. on Nov. 24, 1956, a car owned and operated by the defendant was driving west on Fifth Avenue and struck the two children, Franklin and Shirley Nall. The suit says that as a result of the accident, Shirley, 10, died three to four hours later and Franklin suffered serious bodily injuries.

The plaintiff contends that the defendant was negligent on nine counts:

"(a) In failing to keep a lookout which a person of ordinary prudence would have kept under the same or similar circumstances;

"(b) In failing to maintain over the vehicle she was driving the degree of control which a person of ordinary prudence would have maintained under the same or similar circumstances;

"(c) In operating the vehicle she was then and there driving at a rate of speed, whether or not in excess of any statutory speed limit, was a negligent rate of speed under the circumstances;

"(d) In driving in a business or residential district within the City of Canyon, Texas, at a rate of speed in excess of thirty miles per hour in violation of Article 827a, Sec. 8, Sub-Sec. 1b (1) of the Penal Code of the State of Texas;

"(e) In driving her vehicle at the time and place in question too close to the north curb of Fifth Avenue, Canyon, Texas;

"(f) In failing to apply her brakes;

"(g) In failing to apply her brakes sufficiently in advance to avoid striking the children;

"(h) In driving without lights;

"(i) In failing to sound her horn or give any other audible warning to plaintiff's children."

The suit alleges that the death of Shirley deprived the plaintiff of her "assistance" to the amount of $7,500 and the plaintiff also incurred $1,500 funeral

Canyon Swampland Has 15.95 Inches

Some folks think that Canyon has turned into swampland, but the moisture total is running about normal or just slightly ahead.

Rains last week brought the year's moisture to 15.95 inches in Canyon, and from Monday through Saturday the total was 3.35 inches. The daily rains measured this way: Monday, .59 of an inch; Wednesday night, 1.39 inches; Thursday, .09 of an inch; Friday night, 1.19 inches; and all day Saturday, .09 of an inch.

Rainfall in August has amounted to 5.28 inches in Canyon, while the measurements around the county have ranged from nothing to rivers. Some farmers caught as much as seven and eight inches last week, while others caught only enough to settle the dust for a short time.

School Board Adopts New Budget

A budget calling for expenditures of $492,521 for the fiscal year 1957-58 was adopted Tuesday night by the board of trustees for the Canyon Independent School District following a budget hearing at which one taxpayer was present.

Kenneth Waugh, a member of the faculty of West Texas State College, attended the hearing and went through the budget along with the board.

The board set the 1957 tax rate at $1.50 per hundred dollar valuation, the same as last year. The tax roll is estimated to have a valuation of $16,800,000.

The budget for the coming year is $51,124 greater than last year's budget, with most of the increase coming from higher salaries to be paid teachers and employes of the system. The teachers' raise came from action of the last session of the legislature, and the increased costs are paid by the state through the local system.

The budget is broken down into 7.14 per per cent for administration, 60.82 per cent for instruction, 8.41 per cent for other services, 8.06 per cent for maintenance and operation, 2.84 per cent for fixed charges, 3.80 per cent for capital outlay and 8.93 per cent for debt service.

The board hired Mrs. Oscar Hinger as an additional teacher for the elementary school, subject to assignment. The action was taken after Supt. Joe Gibson told the board that the anticipated enrollment for the first grade next week will be between 115 and 120, calling for five sections and five teachers.

In other action, the board awarded Sealtest Creamery, Plains Division, a contract for supplying milk to the school cafeterias next year, and decided to award bids in successive years on a rotation basis. Bids were received from Hereford Creamery, Goldsmith Dairy Foods, Bordens and Sealtest, and all were identical — the current wholesale price less five per cent discount. The current wholesale price is 6¾ cents per half pint of milk.

The board also awarded a contract to American Bakeries of Amarillo to supply bread to the cafeterias. Another bid was received from Mead Bakery for the same costs. The bid was awarded on the basis of a representative of American Bakeries living in the school district.

The board also decided to adopt an insurance program of North American Accident Insurance Company, represented by A. L. Crossland, for the coming year. Under the plan, students in school may obtain an accident policy at a cost of $2 for the school term. Participation will be voluntary. Athletes participating in school functions will be insured by the board at a cost of $8 for the school term.

A policy of no vending machines in the school system was adopted by the board. They approved rotation schedules for purchase of food for the cafeteria from local grocers and purchase of gasoline and oil from district distributors.

They also approved a contract with the Amarillo Independent School District for transfer of students from the Canyon district who live near the Amarillo line.

It's Time to Remember

Just about this time of year it becomes the duty of every newspaper to put special emphasis on a subject that is forgotten too much of the time.

In no time at all, there'll be hundreds of children crossing streets at regular times. And, childlike, they won't be paying too much attention to anything but themselves and their friends.

With school starting, every driver in Canyon should look at himself with an objective eye, and see if he can't improve his driving habits. We all drive too fast. None of us pays enough attention to our surroundings.

We're prone to speed down the streets, looking off toward the Joneses or to the Brown's pretty yard. We don't pay enough attention to stop signs, usually slowing down, looking quickly for oncoming cars and driving on across the intersection.

Children have a way of being inconspicuous. Unless we look for them, we're liable not to see them. They're apt to dart from behind parked cars, and to ride bicycles the wrong direction in the middle of the street.

We drivers can do a lot toward making the streets safe for the children of the town (and incidentally for ourselves) if we'll just slow down and be more alert.

On the other hand, parents of school-age children can do a lot toward easing their own minds and making their children safer by explaining the ways of traffic and of automobiles. We realize it's hard for a six-year-old to be as careful in crossing streets as it is for an older person.

We also realize that the youngsters can't know how dangerous it is to play in the streets or to chase a ball out into the street without looking.

But if all the drivers in Canyon and all the parents of small children will do what they can about looking out for children and about teaching them the dangers of cars, we might be able to slip through the year without a fatal car-child accident. We didn't last year.

Staying on Duty

Did you notice last week how Sheriff L. S. Johnston was paying attention to his job even though he was traveling from Canyon to Washington, D. C., where he is going to attend the FBI National Academy?

Slim was driving through Oklahoma and happened to hear a news broadcast of the arrest of a gang of forgers in Oklahoma City. The story he heard must have reminded him of the circumstances of some forgery cases reported in Randall County, so he stopped by Oklahoma City to check up.

Sure enough, the gang arrested there matched up with the one which operated here, so Slim called back to Canyon to have warrants issued for their arrest and to have charges filed against them.

Slim figured that his deputies would need some more information and asked that anyone who had seen any of the gang or any of the cars they used to call one of the Randall County offices with the information. He let the newspapers know what his deputies might need so that the people of the county could be informed.

Then he must have stepped back into his car and started again for Washington. Maybe when he gets to the FBI school, Slim can give the national policemen a few hints.

Are We Too Big?

Do you suppose Canyon has grown too large to carry on some of the acts of friendship that other small towns in the Panhandle use?

We mean things like picnics, ice cream suppers or watermelon feeds for the townspeople—a good chance for old citizens to meet new citizens and for old citizens to get re-acquainted.

In reading newspapers from other towns in the Panhandle, we see that many have annual events along that line, and apparently most are quite successful. This year we've read of those entertainments in Shamrock, Perryton, Clarendon and all around. Canadian had one a couple of weeks ago, and more than 500 were there. The Canadian party had cake, ice cream and lemonade for refreshments and free swimming was the organized entertainment.

Maybe Canyon is too large, nowadays, for that sort of thing. Maybe there is no longer any need for the people who have lived here a long time to welcome those who haven't. Or maybe we've just gotten too busy being busy to take the time for friendliness.

We don't see how you could have, but if you missed the Lions Club Carnival last week on the square, you missed the liveliest exhibition this town has seen since the carnival last year.

Bright lights disspelled the usual night-time gloom from downtown Canyon, and it was harder to find a parking space than it usually is during the daytime. People roamed the square in a holiday mood, and all was blissful and gay.

The rains hampered the crowds, most likely, but it was a good carnival. It probably didn't help the merchants' business much, except possibly Saturday afternoon, but the money raised by the club will go a long way toward helping out in community projects during the next year.

Our congratulations to the Lions Club for helping bring the people of Canyon closer together, while working for a worthy cause at the same time.

She headed straight for Texas,

"This, of course, is dam-yankee propaganda, and as usual with such, geographically inaccurate. Harold Hudson in the Ochiltree County Herald (Perryton): "The main reason that Communism won't work is that Communism believes in spreading around all the money equally, at least that is what they say. Anybody can see that this won't work. For example, we need more than our fair share to be able to make ends meet. As long as we don't have our fair share, somebody with plenty of money can carry us, and this is why we are able to pay our bills and take vacation trips on credit. Game Commission Sets Open Seasons; Bag Limits for Migratory Fowl, Game

Open season and bag limits in Texas for the 1957 hunting season now have been pretty well established, according to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission. At a meeting in Austin recently, the Commission set down the seasons for migratory birds. These will need final approval of the Fish and Wildlife Service, which will be forthcoming soon.

The deer season generally begins Nov. 16 and extends through Dec. 31. This is for white-tailed deer, especially in the Hill Country. Turkey season, for the most part, is open at the same time, with one gobbler permitted.

Antlerless deer permits will be available from landowners in certain areas where too many deer are present.

Drawings for permits on the Management Area hunts will be held in October.

The mule deer season West of the Pecos has been set for Nov. 20-27 inclusive.

There will be open dates on antelope in the Trans-Pecos country Oct. 1-3 and Oct. 5-7. This hunting will be by permit.

The Panhandle antelope season will be Oct. 14-16 and Oct. 17-19. The hunt will be permitted in defined areas in Hartley and Oldham counties. Antelope hunters will be selected through a public drawing in Austin.

The Panhandle deer and turkey seasons will be Nov. 16-25 inclusive.

Quail season will be Dec. 1 to Jan. 16 generally throughout the state.

The commission also recommended a whitewing dove season in the Valley to be held on alternate days, Sept. 13, 15 and 17, 12 noon to sunset, with a bag limit of 10 birds in the aggregate, whitewings and mourning doves.

The regular dove season recommended will be for 47 days in the north zone to begin Sept. 1, and 48 days in the south zone, beginning Oct. 1.

The commission also recommended opening of the duck season this year on the first Friday in November.

"A new digest of the hunting and fishing laws of Texas now is on the presses and will be ready for delivery where licenses are sold, or they can be ordered by postcard from the Austin office," the Executive Secretary said.

Bette McGehee Becomes Bride of Mark Morris in Formal Ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday evening at the First Methodist Church, Bette Jane McGehee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kelly McGehee, who live southeast of Canyon, became the bride of Mark Loren Morris Jr., of Topeka, Kans., son of Dr. and Mrs. Mark Loren Morris Sr., who also live in Topeka.

Kneeling on a satin covered prie dieu, the couple exchanged nuptial vows before a background of green palms, seven-branch candelabra and Grecian pedestals holding urns of white stock and button pompoms. The communion and choir rails were draped with white satin.

The Rev. Doyle Ragle, pastor, read the double-ring service.

Billie Wolfe of Lubbock, harpist, played as a prelude a medley of tunes. Mrs. James Carthel of Lockney, sang "Wonderful One" and "Wedding Prayer," and "Trumpet Tunes" was played for the recessional and processional by organist, Beverly Wood, of Spur, who also played during the reading of vows, "Claire de Lune."

The bride's other attendants, Janna Murray of Pampa, Sandy Casstevens of Brownfield and Mrs. Thomas Keesling of Boulder, Colo., sister of the bridegroom, were attired in dresses styled identically to that of the matron-of-honor's but of white organza over aqua taffeta. All the bride's attendants carried cascade bouquets of pink Armayllis lilies and white agapanthus.

Best man was Thomas M. Keesling of Boulder, and groomsmen were Fred Oehme of New York City, Dwight McGehee, brother of the bride, and Lester Morris, Henderson, Colo. Gary Taylor, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. McGehee escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her formal wedding dress was of peau de soi and Venetian French lace in an orange blossom pattern and was designed with a fitted bodice, scalloped lace and seed pearl edged neckline and long tapered sleeves which extended to points over the wrists.

Double scallops of Venetian lace formed double panels in front and back of the skirts which extended to a chapel length train. Her veil of silk illusion was fitted to a band made of matching scalloped lace and seed pearls. She carried a Bible, a gift from the bridegroom, topped with orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Laid with an antique, lace cloth over aqua taffeta, the table held a three tiered wedding cake and an arrangement of pink Armayllis lilies and white agapanthus.

After driving to New York City, the couple will sail on the Queen of Bermuda for their honeymoon. For the trip to New York City, the bride chose a brown, princess styled dress of imported cotton trimmed with white pique around the neck and sleeves. Her accessories were white and brown.

Mrs. Morris is a graduate of Texas Technological College where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi, social sorority, Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics professional fraternity, Alpha Chi, all-school honorary, and Mortarboard, senior women's honorary. She is a student of nutrition at Cornell University, Ithaca, where she is working toward a master's degree.

The bridegroom attended Kansas University and is now studying for a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree at Cornell University. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta, social fraternity, and Omega Tau Sigma, professional veterinary fraternity.

After Sept. 9, the couple will be at home at 802 Cliff, Ithaca, N. Y.

MR. AND MRS. VICTOR O. KROEGER

Albers-Kroeger Wedding Vows Are Read in Recent Ceremony

Phyllis Albers of Houston, the daughter of E. H. Albers of Gladstone, N. M., and Victor O. Kroeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kroeger of Seward, Neb., were united in marriage recently at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Houston.

The wedding sermonette was given by the Rev. Elmo E. Miertschin of Immanuel Congregation, Houston, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marvin L. Albers, brother of the bride, from Green Valley, Ill.

Attending the bride as matron-of-honor was Mrs. Dean Dammann of San Antonio, Texas. She was attired in a street length dress of mauve crystalline and her headpiece and bouquet were fashioned of tiny purple orchids.

Flower girls, Gayle Keuer of Austin and Barbara Dosien of Houston, wore white organdy dresses with pale pink sashes. At the guest book was Mrs. Frank Isaacs of Houston.

Best man was Dr. Robert Herpolsheimer of Staplehurst, Neb., and ushers were Byron Martens and Wesley Krueger of Houston.

The bride was escorted by the Rev. Marvin Albers. She was attired in a gown of sheer, white nylon organdy styled with a fitted bodice topped with an off-shoulder yoke of folded pleats accented with lace touched with tiny pearls. Her fingertip veil was attached to a plateau bonnet of white organdy with embroidered, white organdy flowers centered with pearls.

For her jewelry, she wore a single strand of pearls, small pearl earrings and a pearl and gold broach which had belonged to her mother. Short, white, pearl-trimmed gloves completed her costume, and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis centered with a single white orchid.

A reception, following the ceremony, was held on the church lawn. The three-tiered cake was served from a lace covered table and punch was served on lace covered tables flanking the bride's table.

Serving were Kitty Mueschke, Lydia Krueger, Lenore Wolf, Charlotte Trimm, Rosemary Langtry and Mrs. George Neilson, all of Houston.

The bride, formerly of Canyon, was for the past five years a teacher in the day school of Immanuel Lutheran Church. A former student at West Texas State, she has been attending Houston University.

The bridegroom is a partner in the Kroeger Shoe Store in Seward, Neb., a family store. During World War II, he was stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Who's Supporting Who?

A recent story in the Washington paper pointed out, with what appeared to be some degree of pride, the amount of federal taxes collected from the residents of the District of Columbia. The story carried a two-column head which read as follows:

"D. C. Pays $428 Million
U. S. Tax, Tops 18 States"

The story went on to list the 18 states referred to as follows:

States	Taxes Collected
Wyoming	$ 58,578,000
North Dakota	$ 68,955,000
Vermont	$ 73,074,000
South Dakota	$ 79,036,000
Nevada	$ 95,690,000
Idaho	$120,184,000
New Mexico	$124,869,000
Montana	$128,991,000
New Hampshire	$135,874,000
Mississippi	$166,854,000
Utah	$176,107,000
Arkansas	$179,410,000
Maine	$180,096,000
Arizona	$184,565,000
South Carolina	$270,292,000
Rhode Island	$301,232,000
West Virginia	$311,614,000
Nebraska	$423,246,000

It was then pointed out that the first five states listed paid a total of $375,333,000 in federal taxes, which figure is substantially less than the District's figure of $428 million.

All of this would be most impressive to someone who was not familiar with where the money comes from for the District residents to pay these taxes. What the story failed to point out was the following most enlightening information.

The federal payroll, alone, in the District of Columbia for the year 1955 was $682 million. This, of course, does not include the tremendous sums spent by people from all over the United States who come to Washington on necessary government business. It does not include the vast sums spent by people from all over the United States who come to Washington to visit their nation's capital and spend many, many dollars with the residents here. Nor does it include the other sources of income flowing into the nation's capital from throughout the country.

What the story failed to point out was the fact that it would require all of the federal taxes of the five states named, to wit, Wyoming, North Dakota, Vermont, South Dakota and Nevada, plus Idaho and Maine, to meet the federal payroll in Washington, and you would still lack six million dollars of making that payroll.

Another interesting figure is found when you add up the total federal payroll that goes into the five states which the writer used for comparison. These five states paid in a total of $375 million in taxes; yet, the federal payroll in those five states, both civilian and military, was $202 million.

In other words, the federal payroll in these five states was almost as far below the amount of taxes these people had to pay as the federal payroll in Washington was above the amount of taxes that the District of Columbia had to pay.

This simply means that the federal tax money which flowed into these five states was almost $200 million less than the amount of federal taxes the people in those states had to pay, while at the same time the amount of the federal payroll flowing into the District of Columbia was more than $250 million greater than the amount of federal taxes collected from the people in the District of Columbia.

It might also be pointed out, since we are looking for the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, that the federal payroll in Washington, D. C., is greater by $23 million than the entire federal payroll that flows into 11 states—Wyoming, South Dakota, Vermont, North Dakota, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, New Hampshire, West Virginia, Maine and Arizona. It might also be said that the state of Nebraska, which paid in $423 million according to the above table, had a federal payroll of only $119 million.

Much more could be said on this subject, but limited space will not permit. However, I could not resist the temptation of calling this matter to your attention—especially in view of the fact that the news story referred to the five states first above mentioned as "the five that contributed the least in federal taxes."

I think it would behoove the District of Columbia and its newspapers to have a little more respect for the states that pay the taxes with which to pay the residents of the District of Columbia.

I repeat that the real issue is, "Who's Supporting Who?"

HOLLYWOOD INFLUENCE

The Manchester Guardian vouches for this: A teacher in an infant school at Old Trafford admonished her tiny pupil, a movie fan. "Now, don't let me have to tell you again."

"O. K., Baby," was the child's reply.

Three English Instructors Picked For New Semester at West Texas State

Three new instructors in English have been appointed to the faculty at West Texas State College for the 1957-58 session, President James P. Cornette has announced.

Miss Prunty comes to WT from New Orleans, where she has been an assistant librarian at Loyola University for the past two years. She is a graduate of the University Prep School at Tonkawa, Okla., and attended the University Junior College in Tonkawa before going to the University of Oklahoma. Miss Prunty holds the A.B. and M. A. degrees from OU, and has studied two years at Oklahoma toward her doctorate.

Miss Prunty has been a graduate assistant, teaching assistant and instructor in English at the University of Oklahoma, and was an instructor in English and mathematics at Marycrest College in Iowa.

Hanig, a native of Philadelphia, attended the University of North Carolina before World War II. When the war ended in 1945, he became recreation director of the Akron, Ohio, community center, where he directed plays and conducted classes in acting and playwriting.

Hanig earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at the University of Texas, where he also was a graduate student in English. He earned his M.A. in English at North Texas State College. Mr. and Mrs. Hanig have three children.

Page is a graduate of Columbia Military Academy in Tennessee, and earned his B.S. in English at Middle Tennessee State College. He holds the M.A. in English from George Peabody College for Teachers, where he has done additional graduate study.

Page was Middle Tennessee distributor for the General Engineering and Manufacturing Company of St. Louis before entering the Air Force, in which he served four years before starting work in college. He is married.

Good or bad luck? Some folks say there's no such thing. It's all management, clear thinking.

Take the pilot of that C-67 with two engines out the other day. He landed it safely in Hawaii after a gruelling six hours over the ocean. Was it good luck? No, he says. He just did everything he knew to do, and from there on he prayed. Many years of skill and cool-headed faith were his to call on when the showdown came.

But the 66 others aboard — with a less able pilot, theirs would have been bad luck in a bad way. Or on another plane, they wouldn't have been scared half to death — good luck indeed.

Two teen-aged drivers have had accidents in the same town recently. One borrowed the family car and sideswiped first a truck, then a passenger automobile. No one was hurt and no great damage done, even though she had no license, failed to stop and render aid and ran a couple of red lights. But all in all, her luck was good.

Three weeks late, another 15-year-old made a corner too fast in her boy friend's car, swerved to avoid a collision, did miss it. But she looked back to see what happened, lost control and ran through the corner of a home, injuring a woman who was standing at her kitchen sink. That was darned bad luck — for her and the boy friend.

And for the homeowner, too. Five or six thousand houses in the town, and this dizzy blonde picked hers to bash in. But because her little girl was playing in the living room instead of the kitchen, she called her luck good!

Good or bad luck? Maybe it's a way of looking at things.

Minister Named For Bible Chair

Minister of the Church of Christ in Throckmorton, Douglass Rohre, has been named to direct the Church of Christ Bible Chair at West Texas State College. He succeeds C. L. Kay, who has become dean of students at Lubbock Christian College.

Rohre, 29, was minister of churches in Meridian and Devine before going to Throckmorton. He is a 1954 graduate of Abilene Christian College, earning his B.S. degree in religious education. He will receive his M.S. this month from the same institution.

A native of Mercedes, Rohre was graduated from San Antonio's Harlandale High School. He served three years in the Navy during World War II, and was recalled to active duty in 1951, serving more than a year during the Korean action.

At Abilene Christian as an undergraduate, Rohre was president of Kappa Kappa Psi, national band fraternity, and was a member of the Wildcat Band, symphony orchestra and the Men's Forum.

Rohre is married and has a daughter, Sherry Lynn, 3 months old. Mrs. Rohre is also a graduate of Abilene Christian College and taught three years in public schools.

NOT A WOLF, EITHER

A girl from the big city complained that a bull kept looking at her in a somewhat menacing manner.

"I imagine," said the farmer, "that it's on account of that red dress you're weahing."

"Oh," said the girl, "I know it's terribly out of fashion, but just fancy a country bull noticing it."

House members are rather short on enthusiasm for a special session of the Legislature, says Speaker Waggoner Carr.

In a poll of the House, Carr received 101 answers from 149 members. Seventy said they didn't feel a special session necessary. Seventeen said they thought it was necessary; and 12 said they were willing to leave it up to the governor.

In announcing the poll results, Carr emphasized that he's all for lobby control and water conservation, the two measures Gov. Price Daniel has said he wants passed. House members, Carr reminded, approved both lobby and water bills last session.

But, said Carr, he still isn't convinced the state can afford the extra session without new taxes.

In reply, Governor Daniel repeated a previous statement that $603,312 is on hand for legislative expenses, or more than twice what a short session would cost.

Outlook probably is this: A special session will be held. There'll be no open rebellion, though possibly a little legislative foot-dragging.

New Land Trouble

Who, if anyone, should pay the back taxes on land bought under the Veterans Land program, then forfeited by the purchaser?

State and local officials are in disagreement. Lack of specific legislation on this subject has resulted in two lawsuits.

In the early days of the land program a lot of veterans apparently bought land at more than it really was worth. When the drouth came and things got tough, many fell behind on taxes and payments, finally had to give up and let the land go back to the Veterans Land Board. In time the board re-sold such tracts to other veterans.

Local taxing units, such as the Bexar-Atascosa-Medina Water District, say somebody has to pay the piper. It demands payment of the back taxes unpaid by the first purchaser and of the taxes that accumulated during the period when the land was forfeited to the state. Without this money, say district officials, they'll have a hard time paying off their bonds.

Viewpoint of the state, however, is that taxes ceased when the land returned to the board and that the resale was free of tax debt.

School "Wastes" Cited

Need for a little overhauling here and there in the Gilmer Aikin school aid program is suggested in a new Texas Research League report.

Under the "minimum foundation" program the state contributes the money necessary to bring the smaller, poorer districts up to standard.

Research League pointed out that (1) under the scholastic apportionment formula (so much per pupil) some districts actually receive more money than their minimum foundation needs. And (2) guaranteed state contributions discourage local efforts to improve by raising taxes.

It's a system, says the League, that tends to perpetuate "educationally inadequate" districts.

Harrison Named

William A. Harrison, 47, apparently is to be the key man in a program designed to provide Texas with model insurance regulation.

Harrison, who has been serving temporarily without pay since June 21, was named by the Insurance Board to a two-year term, beginning Sept. 1. Senate must confirm the appointment. The former assistant state auditor moves into the second highest paid job in Texas government — $20,000 per year.

One of his first tasks will be to expand the department's staff of insurance company examiners. Recent legislation provided for 26 new men, bringing the staff to 65. Former department officials had complained they didn't have enough examiners to keep tabs on the thousands of companies operating in Texas.

Business Plateau

Texas business activity for the first half of 1956 is up four per cent over 1956. This despite an 11 per cent drop from May to June, says the UT Bureau of Business Research.

UT analysts say it looks as if the breathtaking rise of the past few years has lost its momentum. But they see no "strong evidence of the beginning of a downward trend." They foresee, instead, Texas business continuing, with minor ups and downs, on its present high plateau.

It'll Cost Us Too

Texans who think the federal government is going to take care of all their highway problems now are due for disillusionment.

So says State Highway Commission Chairman Marshall Formby. Interstate highways paid for with federal funds will take care of only 16 per cent of the state's traffic load, said Formby. Bringing the other 84 per cent of state roads to first-class condition will cost $2,000,000,000.

With present funds of $80,000,000 to $90,000,000 a year, it'll take 22 years, he said. "And by that time we'll need more four-lane roads."

Ask First

Various departments of the State are playing it safe today. They don't want to run afoul of what has been termed "the new moral atmosphere in Texas."

Indicative of the new trend is the "ask-first" attitude that has developed. Result: Many requests of the attorney general for rulings.

In an opinion given State Auditor C. H. Cavness it was ruled that it would be legal for a state college cafeteria to buy its milk from a dairy owned by a legislator.

Inasmuch as the Texas Constitution prohibits a lawmaker from receiving an office created during his legislative term, the Board of Pardon and Paroles asked if it would be legal for Rep. J. T. Ellis Jr. of Weslaco to be director of the new adult parole supervision system set up by the Legislature.

Short Snorts

O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Prison System at Huntsville, reports that the prison is in urgent need of more guards.

Texas Farm Bureau President Walter Hammond says the federal soil bank program probably is doomed after next year. He is credited with originating the soil bank idea. But his proposal did not include payments for retired acreage.

Texas will enter the new fiscal year Sept. 1 with a cash balance of something like $48,000,000 in the general revenue fund, according to figures from State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert. Fund had $44,765,760 on Aug. 1. Continued increase at the same rate as during July would add $3,500,000 more this month.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows:

"Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this State as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classification of officers and employees of judicial districts of this State as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 48-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection except as permitted by Section 63 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the State to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per centum (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the State.

"All funds provided from the compensation of such person or by the State of Texas for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the Treasury of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States; or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent University Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of this State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of those funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said Fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said Fund.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said special election and this Amendment shall be published and the election held as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of Texas, so as to increase the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to needy aged, needy blind, and needy children; and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants.

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment increasing the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds from Twenty Dollars ($20) per month to Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per month subject to certain conditions for payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) per month and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to needy aged, needy blind, and needy children from Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) per year to Forty-seven Million Dollars ($47,000,000) per year, and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, providing for the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State; providing for the payment of such bonds; creating an agency to administer said Fund and to perform other duties prescribed by law; limiting the period during which financial assistance may be granted; and providing for the calling of an election and the publication and issuance of the proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-c, as follows:

"Section 49-c. There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Texas Water Development Board to exercise such powers as necessary under this provision together with such other duties and restrictions as may be prescribed by law. The qualifications, compensation, and number of members of said Board shall be determined by law. They shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate in the manner and for such terms as may be prescribed by law.

"The Texas Water Development Board shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The Legislature of Texas, upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected Members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue additional bonds in an amount not exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). The bonds authorized herein or permitted to be authorized by the Legislature shall be called 'Texas Water Development Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

"All moneys received from the sale of State bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Water Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the Texas Water Development Board in such manner as prescribed by law.

"Such fund shall be used only for the purpose of aiding or making funds available upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may prescribe, to the various political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas including river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59 or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party and municipal corporations, in the conservation and development of the water resources of this State, including the control, storing and preservation of its storm and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams, for all useful and lawful purposes by the acquisition, improvement, extension, or construction of dams, reservoirs and other water storage projects, including any system necessary for the transportation of water from storage to points of treatment and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods.

"Any or all financial assistance as provided herein shall be repaid with interest upon such terms, conditions and manner of repayment as may be provided by law.

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision or while any of the bonds that may be authorized by the Legislature under this provision, or any interest on any of such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Water Development Fund, and the interest and sinking funds established for the payment of bonds issued by the Texas Water Development Board. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature. The Legislature may also make appropriations from the General Revenue Fund for paying administrative expenses of the Board.

"From the moneys received by the Texas Water Development Board as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this Section sufficient moneys to pay the interest and principal to become due during the ensuing year and sufficient to establish and maintain a reserve in said fund equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements on all outstanding bonds issued under this Section. If any year prior to December 31, 1982 moneys are received in excess of the foregoing requirements then such excess shall be deposited to the Texas Water Development Fund, and may be used for administrative expenses of the Board and for the same purposes and upon the same terms and conditions prescribed for the proceeds derived from the sale of such State bonds. No grant of financial assistance shall be made under the provisions of this Section after December 31, 1982, and all moneys thereafter received as repayment of principal for financial assistance or as interest thereon shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the State bonds; except that such amount as may be required to meet the administrative expenses of the Board may be annually set aside; and provided, that after all State bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys so received shall be deposited to the General Revenue Fund.

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1957, same being the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in said November, 1957, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon, the following words:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State."

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-c of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Water Development Fund to provide financial assistance to certain political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas in the conservation and development of the water resources of the State."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The expense of publication and election for such amendment shall be paid out of the proper appropriation made by law.

The increased costs of plates and the new fee schedule were authorized by the last session of the legislature. The fee schedule takes seven pages to list, and may be obtained from the county clerk's office by those who need the entire schedule. New costs for any item may be obtained by contacting the office.

I GIVE YOU
TEXAS
By BOYCE HOUSE

When I was police reporter in Memphis long years ago, it was the custom to "check" with the hospitals and undertakers for victims of accidents and shootings. I had difficulty in getting information from one hospital and so some thought was given to cause those in charge to be more cooperaative.

It was the practice to mention the hospital to which an injured man was taken but, in the event of death, we wrote, "He died in a local hospital." I continued this procedure with all the hospitals except the uncooperative one. When a death occurred there, I would write, "He died in the Blank Hospital."

After a week or so, the superintendent protested to C. P. J. Mooney, the editor of the Commercial Appeal, "If these mentions keep on, people will soon think that our hospital is the gateway to the graveyard; we might as well engrave above our entrance, 'Abandon hope, all ye who enter here.'"

Mr. Mooney chuckled and replied, "I imagine Boyce will be glad to stop if he can just get the news when he phones." Thereafter, that hospital "played ball" just like the others.

If you are a young singer aspiring to fame, you are likely to succeed if you can get one good song and identify yourself with it. Think of Ted Lewis and you think of "When My Baby Smiles at Me." Fannie Brice's name is associated with "My Man." Nick Lucas became famous for two songs, "Tiptoe through the Tulips" and "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine."

Al Jolson gained his early renown with "Mammy" though of course we remember him also for "Swanee," "California, Here I Come" and "April Showers." Eddie Cantor also is identified with a flock of hits, including "If You Knew Susie" and "My Baby Just Cares for Me." But Jolson and Cantor are exceptions; Cantor is, and Jolson was, great all-round entertainers.

A band-leader named McCoy staked out "Sugar Blues" and DeWolfe Hopper, the renowned actor, when recognized in any gathering, was called on to recite "Casey at the Bat." So get yourself a tune or a recitation (remember Abbott and Costello's "Who's on First?") that will be like a campaign slogan for a candidate or a brand on a can of corn. Why did I have to say "corn?"

Recent visitors in the E. E. Plank home were Mrs. Fred Kitchen and son and his friend, Jerry Steel, of Harrisonville, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Turner of Dallas.

Cherry Blossoms

Margaret and Lee Foster celebrated Saturday their 30th wedding anniversary and had quite a clever party to commemorate the event.

They called the party "The Ceremony of the Burying of the Hatchet," and used the burying of the hatchet as the theme for the decor on the serving table.

To invite their guests, friends and acquaintances who married during the twenties, they sent notes telling the people that since they had been married lo and behold these 30 years, they figure that the bond will last and they might as well bury the hatchet and smoke the peace pipe.

So, on the serving table was a centerpiece of pink and white variegated carnations featuring a hatchet and a peace pipe in a styrofoam base.

Ladling the punch and serving the cake were two friends who are also celebrating this year their 30th year of matrimony, Mrs. Dan Sanders and Mrs. Joe Gibson.

Crystal and silver appointments were used on the table, laid with a white silk cloth.

On the buffet was another conversation piece, or pieces, I should say. Margaret's wedding dress of satin and lace edged in pearls in the style of the twenties, was flanked by her wedding picture and a bridal nosegay.

Margaret used tradition and sentiment in decorating the house for the party. In the corner of the dining room was an amber vase which held a place of honor on the organ at the wedding of Lee's mother and father.

A china, hand painted pitcher, now made into a lamp to focus light on a painting of an old-fashioned pitcher of roses, is the pitcher Margaret's mother used to set up housekeeping.

In accord with the pearl anniversary, the guests presented the honorees with a striking and most beautiful set of steak knives with pearl handles with filigreed overlay of sterling silver.

The Foster's daughter, Sally, registered the 60 guests who included out-of-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson of Vega.

The Truman Freeman's dog, Butch, has a fatherly instinct—not for kith and kin of the canine set but for little, homeless kittens.

Recently, Butch came trotting triumphantly home carrying a baby kitten and presented it to the two Freeman girls, Rita and Nelda. But, just to look at and not to care for.

That's Butch's job, and one he attends to diligently. Every morning when the Freemans get up they find Butch standing by the box watching over the kitten, which the Freemans are bottle feeding.

I'll have to admit that Butch's orphanage is a bit unusual.

New faces and places.

That's what the E. W. Pettitts will be seeing a lot during the next few weeks. The Pettitts moved last Saturday to Seattle, Wash., where he will be employed by Boeing Aircraft Co., and she will teach in the Seattle public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettitt are a couple with a lot of educational ambition. While living here, they both attended West Texas State College and received their degrees—she in primary education and he in math. During their stay in Seattle, they both will attend the University of Washington and work toward a master's degree.

According to Mrs. W. E. Lockhart, Mrs. Pettitt's mother, they plan to also work toward PhD's if their tenure in Washington is long enough.

At any rate, it's a lot of good luck and best wishes to the Pettitts.

From all reports I've heard, we're in for an early and hard winter. At least we are, I hear, according to the Indian signs.

Some have found moss on the north side of their trees; the corn husks were thick this year; and the cucumber and cantaloupe came up early. Heap big signs of hard and early winter.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District, have worked on several farms and ranches the past week, in spite of the showers that were sorely needed and greatly appreciated.

L. T. Campbell and son, who farm about six miles southeast of Bushland, were assisted in locating a slope suitable for constructing a trench silo.

A trial line for a diversion terrace near one-half mile long was run on the Jim Cabe farm northwest of Canyon. In addition to the diversion terrace, S. C. S. technicians are designing Cabe a waterway to safely carry off excess water that is emptying onto him from adjoining farms.

Approximately two miles of standard field terraces were staked out on the Frank Foliart farm just north of Amarillo. About three miles of terrace lines were previously marked out for Foliart to construct with his own machinery.

J. W. Spencer, chairman of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District supervisors, believes in practicing what the district and S. C. S. preaches. Grass clippings were made off a pasture that Mr. Spencer has been deferring. These clippings will give Spencer a good estimate of the production of his pasture and will serve as a guide for proper use of the pasture in the future. Spencer wants to use his pasture and at the same time improve it by using good conservation practices.

It is said that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Never let it be said that the district supervisors, soil conservation service technicians and other agricultural workers within the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District are "dull boys."

A barbecue supper at Buffalo Lake was enjoyed last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Conatser, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Begert, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rockwell Jr. and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Brazzil and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Batson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beights and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Pond.

All present will testify that County Agricultural Agent Brazzil, Work Unit Conservationist Batson and Game Warden Pond are as proficient at preparing a mouthwatering meal as they are on the job.

First Baptist Church Is Scene For Quillen-Harmon Nuptial Vows

The First Baptist Church was the scene Saturday evening for the solemnizing of nuptial vows by Martha Quillen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Wirt, and Billy Dean Harmon, son of Mrs. Bob Jameson of Matador and A. M. Harmon of Roaring Springs.

Draped with pink satin, the choir rail was centered with a Gothic arch, flanked by arrangements of white gladioli, pink daisies and candelabra. Garlands of smilax extended from the edge of the arch to the choir rail. The couple knelt on a satin covered prie dieu as the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, read the double-ring service.

Organist, Mrs. Dick Dawdy, and Mrs. Ellis Brown of Lorenzo, violinist, played a prelude, including "Nocturne," "I Love Thee," "Air," "To the Evening Star," "Ave Maria" and "Cavalleria Rusticana."

'I Love You Truly" was played as the mothers entered and "Clair de Lune" during the lighting of candles. Walter Ellis Gillon of Ralls sang "Whither Thou Goest, I Will Go," and Mrs. Dawdy played "You'll Never Walk Alone," following the processional, "Because" during the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction preceding the recessional.

Maid-of-honor was Nancy Adcock, and matron-of-honor was Mrs. R. A. Burgess of Riverside, Calif. Bridesmaids were Billye Wirt of Amarillo, niece of the bride, and Barbara Douglas of Muleshoe. Deborah Wirt, niece of the bride, and Lorna Rae Duncan, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Attendants and candlelighters were attired in dresses in shades of pink taffeta, styled with fitted bodices and flowing skirts. Sashes tied in back had streamers extending to the hemlines. Their headdresses were bows of pink taffeta and they carried cascades of pink carnations.

Gordon Harmon of Sanderson was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were J. L. Snyder of Lubbock, John Quillen, brother of the bride, and Carey Hobbs of Abilene.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown of white tulle and chantilly lace was styled with a long lace bodice, pointed sleeves and sabrina neckline. The gathered tulle skirt was accented with lace medallions, and her veil was attached to a Juliet cap of tulle trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a Rainbow Bible centered with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis and white satin streamers.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Wirt wore a navy silk shantung sheath with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jameson wore a navy dress with light blue accessories. Both had corsages of pink roses.

A reception in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony feted the bridal party and guests. Laid with an imported lace and linen cloth over pink, the serving table was centered with the bride's bouquet on a reflector, flanked by white candles.

Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. L. H. Hix, sister of the bride, and Mrs. L. D. Wirt, a sister-in-law. Aunt of the bride, Mrs. Cas Jennings, Mrs. Wayne Wirt, a sister-in-law, and Mrs. Kenneth Duncan, cousin of the bride, ladled punch.

Assisting in the house party were Marilyn Miller of Abilene, who registered the guests, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. Iverson Leake, Lynn and Mayla Atkinson, Virginia Leake, Liston Coleman, June Davis, Mrs. A. C. Wimberly, Mrs. James Kauffman, Mrs. Frank Hicks, Mrs. Claude Moore, Mrs. R. A. Hodges, Mrs. A. M. Cunningham, Mrs. Faye Cannedy and Mrs. J. R. Devin.

For the wedding trip to Colorado and New Mexico, the bride wore a brown sheath trimmed in black velvet with black, turquoise and white accessories.

After Sept. 1, the couple will be at home at Odessa.

The bride is a graduate of Canyon High School and attended Texas Technological College where she was a member of Phi Beta Pi sorority. A graduate of Roaring Springs High School, the bridegroom received his degree from Texas Tech, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He will teach physical education at Reagan Elementary School, Odessa.

A special out-of-town guest at the wedding was Mrs. Temple Ann Ellis, great-aunt of the bride, from Ralls. Other out-of-town guests were from Abilene, Littlefield, Dallas, Lubbock and other towns on the High Plains.

On Friday night, Mrs. Cas Jennings, Mrs. Kenneth Duncan, Mrs. L. L. Hix, Mrs. L. D. Wirt and Mrs. Wayne Wirt entertained with a rehearsal dinner in the Kenneth Duncan home. An arrangement of white chrysanthemums and pink asters, a gift from the bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Schubach of Washington, D. C., centered the table.

Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest president of the United States. He was 43.

Ann Moore Honored At Two Courtesies

Two courtesies last week complimented Ann Moore, bride-elect of Larry Dean Griffin of Earth. The first of the two parties was a coffee held Aug. 13 in the home of Mrs. Bailie McCormick.

Hostesses for the coffee were Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. H. C. Adcock, Mrs. W. T. Robinson, Mrs. Andy Walsh, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. T. L. Devin, Mrs. Lorenzo Wirt, Mrs. L. K. Bolton, and Mrs. Glenn Dowlen.

Laid with a white cut-work cloth embroidered in blue, the serving table was centered with a replica of a bride's bouquet on a star foam pedestal. The bouquet, of tufts of blue net and ribbons embedded with lilies-of-the-valley and white asters, was tied with a blue ribbon, the streamers of which extended to the corners of the table. White asters tied with streamers holding miniature blue and white shoes and bags of rice were other points of interest on the table.

At the guest book were Martha Quillen, Nancy Kay Tomlinson and Nancy McCormick. Presiding at the silver service were Mrs. T. S. Stevenson Sr., Mrs. Iverson Leake, Mrs. Newton Crain and Mrs. W. R. Crow.

A personal shower honored the bride-elect Aug. 15 in the home of Charlotte Crain.

The 20 guests were served sandwiches, cookies and pineapple punch from a table laid with a white linen cloth and centered with white asters.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher of Redwood City, Calif., were visitors last week in the Lem Fisher home. A weekend visitor was the Fisher's son, Lt. Kenneth Fisher, of Norfolk, Va.

REPAIR WATER DAMAGED FIELDS
insure proper field drainage for the future
Look at the contrast between this field which the owner has smoothed with an EVERSMAN each year and his neighbor's rough fields full of water pockets.
Excessive moisture in most areas this year has played havoc with farm fields and points up the urgent need for a MOISTURE MANAGEMENT program utilizing the Eversman Land Leveler and Dirt Mover. With the Eversman it is easy and economical to repair washed out areas, move dirt from the high places into the low water pockets, establish a grade over the entire surface so water spreads evenly over the field and slowly drains into adjacent drainage ditches. The Eversman is also an ideal machine for building farm-over drainage ditches or grass water ways. After the dirt moving operation is completed the same machine smooths and levels field surfaces, eliminating dead furrows and back furrows and the high spots and depressions, making an ideal seed bed that greatly increases crop yields through uniform planting and uniform stands. The Eversman is a must for efficient irrigation. The smooth table-top surfaces make it possible to put water on fields uniformly with less water and with great savings in labor.
There are seven all purpose Eversman Models for all standard farm tractors—for Automatic Soil Smoothing, Dirt Moving, Seed Bed Preparation. A size for every tractor size, at a cost to fit every pocketbook. Come in today for full details.
Now it's easy and economical to move dirt, fill water pockets, smooth and level field surfaces with an . . .
Eversman AUTOMATIC LAND LEVELER AND DIRT MOVER
FOR OPEN LAND—If you have land open, you will find summer and fall the ideal time to make permanent improvements on your fields. Whether your problem is too much or too little rainfall, land smoothing is a necessary practice to control and efficiently manage the water on your fields. During a wet season, land forming will provide fast, uniform surface drainage and erosion control. If the season is dry, land preparation conserves all the natural rainfall and permits uniform application of supplemental irrigation water. Smooth your fields before planting permanent pastures—for better germination and stands, and to eliminate low, wet spots.
